

To Whom It May Concern,

Some newspapers in Rwanda are spreading rumors that police arrested Joseph Nziroera's son in Kigali for money extortion. We would like to say that none of Joseph Nziroera's children lives in Rwanda since 1994. The Nziroera family is sadden by those lies which are spread by newspapers without any proper investigation.

We would like also to emphasize that Joseph Nziroera has never been convicted because he died during his trial therefore the proceeding against him directly terminated before he was sentenced.

Thank you for your consideration,

Nziroera family.
